

TRAIN THE TRAINER

POWERED BY VREP

DEMENTIA
DX

Train your staff to deliver Dementia DX workshops within your organisation.

Enjoy full control of this unique experiential learning tool that uses virtual reality to provide a better understanding of the challenges faced by those living with dementia.

The Benefits...

Run unlimited VR workshops for staff, family and friends

Train employees and families within your organisation to run workshops

A fully portable service - run anywhere without the need for wifi connection via your own server laptop

Training provided by Age Scotland and VR-EP

2 half-day on-site user training events for up to 8 staff members to become accredited trainers

Receive a full training script for each workshop

Access to your own hardware including:

- A high spec gaming laptop
- 5 Oculus Quest 2 VR headsets
- Rechargeable headstraps
- Carry case

A fully networked solution with network router for unlimited VR headsets

A 3 year licence agreement (min. 12 month term) with access to the shared VR applications, including:

- Care home living and dining space
- Kitchen Space
- Bedroom and bathroom space
- Walk-through care home
- Garden space

Supporting architectural videos and voiceover

Free ongoing system support available 9-5pm by VR-EP

2 day configuration of server, router and headsets

Access to system updates and additional visual filter developments

2 year equipment warranty